Forty-one golfers yesterday teed off for the third annual District championship tournament under the auspices of the District of Columbia Golf Association, played on the Columbia Golf Association, played on the Columbia Gountry Club course in the first day's play of the seventy-two holes, medal score, event. Although there was a strong breeze overhead which to a certain extent affected the play, yet the scores turned in were not as good as they should have been in a titular event. Edward B. Eynon, jr., and William C. Ballantyne, of the Columbia Country Club, are tied for top honors with 162's, with Samuel Dalzell, of Chevy Chase, two strokes away. Norbert Dempsey, the youngster who has been runner-up in the last two local tournaments, is fourth with Reeve Lewis, of Chevy Chase, fifth the last card is turned day's rounds. In medal play, the match is not over until the last card is turned in and there will likely be all kinds of changes in the standing by this evening as a brilliant streak by any one of a number of players will give them a chance to win, provided those in the lead falter. The winner of the event will be given a gold medal emblematic of the District championship and his name and that of his club will be engraved on the Reyburnders with 182's, with Samuel Dalzell, of Chevy Chase, two strokes away.
